DE PARIS

AN ORIGINAL AND TIMELESS SETTING FOR STUDYING

The central library, a historic service of the Cité internationale, is located in the Maison internationale. Its mission is to provide the best possible support to its users in their studies and research by providing quality resources, services, and workspaces.

COLLECTIONS

They are multidisciplinary and primarily cater to Master's level students and researchers. They include:

- Online resources covering all academic disciplines
- 378,000 e-book
- 50,000 printed books
- 9,800 journal titles
- As well as online archives related to the Cité internationale's history available at Gallica.bnf.fr

Please note: the printed collections can only be consulted on-site.

DIGITAL LIBRARY

Numerous multidisciplinary online resources (journals, articles, scientific works, raw data, news and more) are available on-site as well as in the houses' rooms when connected to the Cité internationale's Wifi network: Cairn, info, Dalloz, Lextenso, SpringerNature, the British Medical Journal, Nature, Oxford University Press, etc.
